

More wholesome TV shows, please!

It has gotten so bad, even family shows such as Smallville and Hope & Faith have profanity and objectionable material.

We now only turn on our TV to watch:

Extreme Makeover:Home Edition

NBC Evening News with Tom Brokaw

the World Series

NBA basketball

an occasional documentary

We know many people who have gotten rid of their TVs altogether.

Hopefully, we won't have to take it that far.

The TV could be used in so many positive ways.
